

RITZ COMPANY PLAYHOUSE

Interested in donating to The Ritz Theatre?

On June 29th, 1973, Hawley's Ritz Company Playhouse, once a movie and vaudeville theatre, opened its curtains for the first time with the musical production "Brigadoon". Ever since then the Ritz Players, a group of volunteer community theatre enthusiasts, have dedicated themselves to delivering quality entertainment to the community, by offering LIVE theatre productions in the Hawley/Lake Wallenpaupack area. Their efforts have been successful and the theatre is now entered its forty-fifth year. With your continued support we hope to provide quality entertainment for many years to come. The Ritz Players have become more than a theatre company, we have grown into a true family, bringing together people of all ages, all professions, interests, and backgrounds. Indeed, the audience too, is included in that family as season after season, faithful fans return to buy tickets and encourage the company's efforts through their applause.

Please consider donating to The Ritz Theatre and helping us continue to offer live theatre in the Hawley area.
